Patanjali's Yoga Sutras: General Introduction to Commentary

My plan is as follows for each sutra:

- to offer meanings for the Sanskrit words (meanings as found in various sources including Monier-Williams Sanskrit dictionary, Satchidananda, Taimni, etc. as indicated)
- to give several meanings for the sutra from various translations in the hope that this will help the reader get closer to the original Sanskrit text.
- to provide commentary, from the YogaBhasya of Vyasa, and from various modern editions
- to add my own thoughts or attempts at interpretation (as much as anything this is to help me towards an understanding of the text and I may add to or change my thoughts from time to time, as a result of getting to grips with avidya!)

Abbreviations used in the commentary are as follows:
